Academic Skill Development Programming

Special education programming that supports students who exhibit academic difficulty despite strong evidence-based instruction in foundational literacy and/or numeracy skills. The need for Academic Skill Development Programming is determined by comprehensive assessment.