Accessibility Skill Development Programming

Special education programming that supports students who have a medical diagnosis related to physical functioning, vision, and/or hearing that impacts their ability to access learning. The need for Accessibility Skill Development Programming is determined by comprehensive assessment.